Nick Summa

(314) 330-9149 cell ● nicholas.summa@gmail.com ● https://github.com/nsumma147

Professional Summary

Enthusiastic and determined individual new to the field of computer programming and development. Knowledgeable in multiple programming languages with an emphasis on front-end web development. Works well with other individuals and is comfortable working in different environments. Looking to work hard and continue to improve on my technical skills.

Technical Skills

Programming Languages
- JavaScript, JQuery, Angular, Node, Bootstrap, HTML, CSS

Environments
- Eclipse IDE, Atom IDE

Databases
- MongoDB

Miscellaneous
- Github, Moqups wireframes, Agile development tools

Projects and Code

Wedding Marketplace Project
- Info coming soon

Github Profile
- https://github.com/nsumma147

Training

Summer of Code, Launch Code, St. Louis MO   May 2016-January 2017
- Learned to effectively use common developer tools and implement best practices to write professional quality code
- Learned about core Javascript programming and modern web tools like the JQuery library and using APIs to integrate with third-party platforms

Lift Off, LaunchCode, St. Louis MO   July 2018-Present
- Learned how to work in a professional setting and improved work place skills
- Learned how to build a project from start to finish

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Biology, Cum Laude   May 2009
- Saint Louis University, St. Louis MO

Certified Pharmacy Technician (CPhT)   April 2012
- Pharmacy Technician Certification Board

Work History

Pharmacy Technician, Walgreens Company, St. Louis, MO   2012-Present
- Performed many tasks associated with a retail pharmacy setting including taking and filling prescriptions as well as providing customer service to patients and assisting them with any medicinal related needs
- Work in a group setting where people skills and communication is required

Private Care, St. Louis, MO   Fall 2009-Summer 2011
- Performed health care for an Alzheimer's patient that included frequent errands and attending to any needs of the patient